

SC Evans

For the last 40 years I have worked as a front-line operational engineer with the Royal Navy and the RNLI. I felt it was time to 'come home' to my family and I've been able to dedicate more time to my Special Constable role.

I applied to become a Special Constable because I have time to give and I believe I have the life skills and experience to make a significant contribution, to help make a difference in the community.

It's a great feeling, knowing that something you did helped someone on possibly one of the worst days of their lives. I'm very proud to be a Special Constable and would recommend it wholeheartedly.

Why not Volunteer as a Special Constable in Devon and Cornwall and make a difference in your Community
